

HARRISON WINS IN CHICAGO

Is Elected Mayor Over Merriam

BY PLURALITY OF 18,000

Owing to the Drizzling Rain All Day Merriam Supporters in "Silk Stocking" Wards Did Not Turn Out—Harrison's Fifth Victory.

Chicago, April 5.—Carter H. Harrison was elected mayor of Chicago yesterday. It was the fifth time he had been given the office and his plurality, judged by about 75 per cent. of the returns, is about 18,000.

Charles E. Merriam, his Republican opponent, conceded the election two and a half hours after the polls closed. In giving up the fight, Mr. Merriam said: "I am satisfied with the fight we have made. We have presented the issues of decent, honest, economical and progressive government squarely to the voters in a way that cannot fail to help conditions. The battle must be fought not once but many times, and in the long run it will prove successful. I congratulate Mr. Harrison on his victory and wish him well in his administration."

Merriam got nearly seven per cent. fewer votes than Fred Busse (Republican) had four years ago, while Harrison ran over 17 per cent. ahead of the figures attained by E. F. Dunne (Democrat) at that time. The vote reached above 340,000, approximately 25,000 more than at the preceding mayoralty contest.

In spite of this, both sides agreed that Merriam lost through the failure of the "silk-stockings" wards to show the strength that had been expected from them in favor of Merriam.

Even in the 25th ward, where Merriam's candidacy was conceived, failure of Merriam supporters to go out in the drizzling rain that fell all day and vote for their choice, caused his total to drop far below what had been expected.

While the first ward gave its usual Democratic plurality, it was not alone from this and the river wards of similar character that Harrison drew his support. His promise of 70 cent gas was said by his managers to have had a great influence with the west side wards, where he showed unexpected strength.

Failure of the Dunne Democrats and those included in the camp of Roger C. Sullivan to forget party lines and vote for Merriam was given by the latter's managers as the basis of the Republican defeat. Merriam had made a special appeal to these voters to support him instead of Harrison, with whom they had an especially bitter fight in the primary election.

There were three annexation propositions before the voters. Those for Oak Park and the town of Cicero failed to carry in those towns though voted heavily in Chicago. The village of Morgan Park decided to come in after years of opposition.

A feature of the campaign was the vote polled by the Socialists. Five-sixths of the total precincts indicated that the vote would reach 24,000, a gain of 11,000 over the vote of four years ago. On the other hand, the prohibition vote, which had been 5,875 four years ago, dropped to 3,000 this year. The completed count late last night, gave Harrison a plurality of 17,082. A final count of the 1,324 precincts gave Harrison 177,538 and Merriam, his Republican opponent, 160,276. Rodriguez, the Socialist candidate, received 22,294 votes.

SOCIALISTS LOSE IN MILWAUKEE.

Non-Partisan Candidates for the School Board Win Easily.

Milwaukee, April 5.—The Social Democratic party in Milwaukee City and county was defeated in yesterday's judicial and school board election. In complete return from the city show that Circuit Judge L. W. Bailey, non-partisan, defeated John C. Kleist, Social Democrat by 10,000 votes.

The five non-partisan candidates for full terms on the school board, who received the largest vote at the primary election, were elected yesterday by safe pluralities, as were two other non-partisans for unexpected terms.

The Socialist candidate for alderman at large was defeated by a Democrat. Yesterday's election was the first real test of the Socialists' power in Milwaukee since they swept everything in the city a year ago and carried a number of assembly districts and elected a congressman last fall. The Socialists waged a vigorous campaign and sent notices to all their followers to vote for only party candidates, despite the fact that they had but two candidates for the school board when seven members were to be elected.

Elected Mayor of Chicago for fifth time.

A WOMAN MAYOR.

Mrs. Wilson Heads the Hunnewell, Kan., City Government.

Hunnewell, Kan., April 5.—Mrs. Ella Wilson is now mayor of this town. At the election yesterday, she and O. M. Akers were tied for the office. First it was suggested that the two candidates draw lots for the office. But that did not appeal to the male voters. They said that if Mrs. Wilson could race a man to a tie she ought to have the office. Therefore the judges of election declared her elected.

"Now I am going to clean up Hunnewell," she said. She declared in campaign speeches the town was harboring bootleggers and that the pool halls were being run contrary to law. She proposes to correct these alleged infractions of the statutes.

There were three women candidates for the city council and a woman ran for police judge, too, but all of them were defeated.

POOR YEAR FOR STANDPATTERS

No Such Fight Over Tariff Revision as in 1909 Extra Session Is Now Possible.

Washington, April 5.—That President Taft will not veto any reasonable measures for revision of tariff schedules, despite any talk to the contrary that may have emanated from the White House, is the belief strongly voiced by some of the Republican senators. The belief also is prevalent that before this session of Congress is ended, there will be important revision legislation.

That the Senate Republican insurgents will co-operate with the Democrats on any reasonable proposition for revision has become quite clear. On the strength of their record in the last special session, when the Payne-Aldrich law was passed, they cannot afford to do otherwise. Moreover, the demand among the people for tariff revision is undoubtedly stronger and more nearly crystallized than it was in 1909.

Ordinarily, with a Democratic House and with the Republicans in the majority in the Senate, there would be a deadlock on tariff. Nothing would be done. But there are many indications that this day is passed and that something like an era of non-partisan tariff making has arrived.

OREGON PLAN LOST IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

State Senate Rejects Bills as to Choice of United States Senators.

Concord, N. H., April 5.—The state Senate yesterday killed by a vote of 12 to 10, the bill which recently passed the House, adopting the Oregon plan for instructing the legislature as to the popular choice for United States senators.

The Senate passed the House bill creating a permanent tax commission, but with an amendment transferring the appointment of the members of the commission from the governor to the supreme court.

The Senate passed a House bill reorganizing the present labor bureau into a board of arbitration and conciliation.

SHOOTING IN ST. PETER'S.

Insane Man Fires Revolver in Church at Rome—No One Hurt.

Rome, April 5.—A man subsequently identified as Pietro Pesanti and thought to be insane, entered St. Peter's today armed with a revolver, and without warning, fired upon the canons who were engaged in the recitation of the breviary in choir. The shot went wild and the man was seized and placed under arrest. He fought savagely and slightly wounded a policeman. The worshippers were much alarmed until the madman was secured.

STORM HITS THE WIRES.

Communication Blocked by Storm in the Middle-West.

Chicago, April 5.—A storm reaching over all of the Middle West and extending as far east as the Atlantic coast caused telegraph companies considerable trouble today. It was centered over Arkansas and Oklahoma during the first part of the day. Many wire prostrations were reported and telegraph companies were compelled to re-route considerable of their business outside of the trunk lines.

O'Gorman Visits Taft.

Washington, April 5.—James A. O'Gorman, the new senator from New York, who succeeded Chauncey M. Depew was introduced to President Taft yesterday by Rep. Martin W. Littleton, also of New York.

GRAND TRUNK'S TERMINALS

Road Discloses Its Tidewater Location

IS WITHIN LIMITS OF CITY

Would Cross the New Haven Tracks at Grade—Another Sharp Contest in the Legislature is Likely.

Providence, R. I., April 5.—By its action yesterday in applying to the state legislature for certain modifications in the charter of the Southern New England Railway company, the Grand Trunk showed its hand and practically disclosed the proposed location of its tidewater terminal in Rhode Island. The more important charter changes requested indicate that the terminal tracks of the branch line which the Grand Trunk intends to establish here will probably touch tidewater on the west shore of Narragansett bay within the limits of the city of Providence and not far from the so-called Harbor Junction terminal of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, whose tracks the Grand Trunk now asks the privilege of crossing at grade.

Yesterday's developments in the Grand Trunk situation, coupled with the almost simultaneous action of the state harbor improvement commission in proceeding to condemn, under the right of eminent domain, lands on the west side of Providence river for the purpose of constructing state docks and building a bonded warehouse, etc., are certain to have a most important bearing on the problem of freight transportation both by rail and water.

John S. Murdock, counsel for the Grand Trunk in its efforts to obtain a firm foothold in Rhode Island, caused to be introduced in the House of Representatives yesterday noon, an act providing for certain noteworthy amendments in the charter of the Southern New England Railway company, the new branch of the Grand Trunk road here. The measure was received and ordered referred to a committee.

The proposed amendment in substance provides, first and of most importance, that the right shall be granted to the Southern New England to cross the Harbor Junction of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company at grade some point east of Elmwood avenue in the city of Providence. The bill also asks for the right to cross the tracks of the New Haven road in Allen's avenue, in the city of Providence.

MUST BE IGNORED.

Threats Cannot Influence the Course of Justice.

Chicago, April 5.—The boldness of the black hand in threatening United States officials in attempting to evade the course of justice in the federal courts was recognized officially yesterday by United States Judge K. M. Landis.

In delivering his charge to the jury which later returned a verdict of guilty against Mrs. Santana Piza, indicted for bringing Gattina Brezzi, 17 years old, from Italy to Chicago in violation of the Mann "white slave" act, Judge Landis sternly warned the jurors to let no threats or efforts toward intimidation, influence their verdict.

"During this trial there have been rumors of threats being sent to persons prosecuting this case," declared Judge Landis. "I need not say to you that the man who is influenced by the fraction of a hair's breadth by a threat is as much guilty of corruption as though he had received a money bribe."

"In arriving at a verdict you must not let the thought of any ulterior consequence which may or may not result from your verdict, influence you in the slightest degree."

The charge of Judge Landis was delivered as a result of threats which were reported to have been received by Assistant District Attorney A. R. Hulbert.

ROOSEVELT RAPS RENO.

He Advises the Nevada City to Rid Itself of the Divorce Colony.

Reno, Nev., April 5.—Reno's divorce colony was the subject of Theodore Roosevelt's address Monday to a crowd of several thousands, grouped about the court house steps. "It is one colony of which you want to rid yourselves," he declared. "I don't care what you do with those of your own state who seek divorces, but keep citizens of other states, who want divorces, out of Nevada. Don't allow yourselves to be deceived by the argument that such a colony brings money to your city. You can't afford to have that kind of money brought here."

DRUGGISTS' LICENSES $800.

Rutland License Commissioners Make a Big Increase in Fee.

Rutland, April 5.—The Rutland license commissioners have fixed the fee for a druggist's license at $800, which is a raise of $700 over that of last year. The reason given for the increase is that the commissioners do not regard a druggist's license as necessary when the other classes are granted. Last year one druggist filed an average of 125 liquor "prescriptions" a month.

Clergyman's Son Cured of Tuberculosis

To neglect a cold, bronchitis, lung trouble or Consumption is dangerous. We'll know how prone people are to deny they have Consumption. It is a flattering disease, and the sufferer is filled with bright hopes of improvement. Call consumption by its own dread name—and then—take Eckman's Alternative, because it is effective in Tuberculosis. No one need doubt about it—there is plenty of evidence from live witnesses. Investigate the following:—
Gentlemen: "Prior to Feb. 1908, I was located in Rochester, N. Y., suffering with Ladrillip, which developed into Tuberculosis. My physician gave me one month to live. I was having terrible night sweats and mid-day chills and losing flesh rapidly, having gone from 155 to 135 lbs. I coughed and raised continually and became so weak that walking a few feet exhausted me. On my return home, my regular physician gave me little encouragement. My father, who is a clergyman, heard of Eckman's Alternative and induced me to take it. The night sweats and chills disappeared, my cough became easier and gradually diminished and in a few days I developed an appetite, the first in months. I am now in perfect health, back to 155 lbs. I feel certain that I owe my life to Eckman's Alternative."

Gentlemen: "I cannot find words to express my appreciation of what your remedy has done for my son. It changed despair into hope within two weeks after he began taking it, and without any doubt in my mind, it saved his life. I wish to add my endorsement to every word of his testimonial."

NO PEACE TILL DIAZ RESIGNS

Declares Mexican Insurgent Leader Madero

CABINET CHANGES GOOD But Not Sufficient to End the Revolution—Want No More Promises, but Action on the Part of Diaz.

Madero's Camp, near Chihuahua, April 5.—A declaration that all talk of peace is futile so long as President Diaz refuses to resign and that the cabinet changes at Mexico City have served only to convince the insurgents of their ultimate success was made by Francisco I. Madero, jr., the provisional president, in an interview yesterday. The interview was an amplification of one which he gave to the Associated Press a few days ago. Madero declared he was confident of "the final triumph of arms in the overthrow of Diaz."

In all northern Mexico, he said, the insurgent movement was spreading until now the Federal troops were confined to the garrison towns, "at which the insurgents are preparing to strike a decisive blow."

Referring to his father and Gustavo A. Madero, his brother, who were reported to have initiated peace plans with Minister De La Barra with a view of ending the war, the insurgent president intimated strongly that they had no authority to act for him, and that he would not accept any proposals which were not addressed directly either to himself or to Dr. Vasquez in the United States.

"The change of the ministry is a concession to an armed revolution," said Madero, "it comes too late, and is not sufficient."
Madero's camp was reached after 60 miles of travel in a carriage. The building occupied by the leader and his staff is an extensive stone and plaster palace, which he laughingly referred to as his "capitol." It is the seat of a hacienda of more than a million acres owned by a member of the Madero family. When the visitor arrived, Madero came to the front porch, attended by General Pascual Orozco and members of his staff.

After a formal greeting, the leader swept his hand toward the plantation where 1,200 men were encamped and wanted to know why it did not look like an army. With him were seven Americans, including Dr. Wilson, his physician and Oscar G. Creighton, who has been active in blowing up railroad bridges. The interview took place in a spacious tiled room, and immediately returned to the subject of peace.

"Nothing has taken place since we took up arms to justify us in laying them down," said Madero. "Mr. Limantour has said that the people's wish for reforms, peacefully asked, would be granted. In December, 1909, I wrote a letter to Mr. Limantour, telling him a revolution surely would come if the government did not grant a free ballot. That was asking for reforms peacefully. The answer was 'to jail with all the reformers.'"

"We took up arms and we mean to fight it out. The change in the cabinet is something unheard of in Mexico before. It is a concession to an armed revolution. But it is not sufficient, and it comes too late. It simply justifies us in our course and shows the government's inability to crush us now."

KING NOT TO INTERFERE.

George V. Will Allow Parliament to Thresh Out Lords' Reform.

London, April 5.—King George will not exercise the royal prerogative so far as to interfere with the measures that may be proposed for the reform of the constitution of the house of lords. In a message sent to the upper chamber in reply to an address from the lords, his majesty says: "Relying upon the wisdom of my parliament, I desire that my prerogatives and powers, insofar as they relate to the creation of peerages and to the issue of writs of summons to the lords' spiritual and temporal to attend, to sit and vote in the house of lords, should not stand in the way of the consideration by parliament of any measure that may be subject of the constitution of the house of lords."

New York, April 4.—Mayor Gaynor's administration of the excise law with its bearing on the crime wave situation came in for sharp scoring at the New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal church today and a resolution was passed declaring that "while we do not impugn the good motives of Mayor Gaynor, we are not surprised at the present carnal of crime, when we remember how lenient his administration has been to the saloon, the parent of crime."
The Rev. Ferdinand C. Inglehart, city superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, told the conference that there were 5000 "blind tigers" in the city.

CROP WAS LARGEST EVER RAISED.
"I have sold your fertilizers for about ten years and have never seen anything that has given better results. The crops grown this year on Complete for Potato Roots and Vegetables was very satisfactory. The season was dry and the potato crop was expected to be a failure, but on the contrary, the crop was the largest ever raised. This I know to be the fact, because I went into the fields in harvest time and know that it is true."
